Silver Congressmen Now Reported to Favor Repealing the Sherman Law.

Cleveland Believed to Be Essponsible for Their Change of Heart-Sligh: Decrease in the Public Debt During May.

BRIBED BY CLEVELAND.

Silver Congressmen Won to the President's Views by the Distribution of Offices. WASHINGTON, June 27,-The Star has Information coming from silver sources makes it safe to predict that there will be comparatively little trouble to pass a bill through the House to repeal the Sherman silver law soon after Congress meets. How the thing will stand in the mate is another story, but it will probably be found that the finance committee, at the head of which is Senator Voorhees, which has been regarded as strongly favoring silver, will have a majority for the repeal of the present law. It appears that a number of members of the House who voted against any action during the last Congress have seen a light since and expect to The reason given by some of those who will drop from the ranks of the radical silver men is that, in the light of the present fluancial situation, many of "their people," without yielding their convictions on the silver question, are willing that the Sherman law should be repealed at once, leaving the question of future coinage of silver open. How far this is the result of the judicions distribution or withholding of patron-age by Mr. Cleveland may be left for inference. But it is certain that Mr. Cleveland has not lost eight of this issue in dealing with statesmen who have been making pilgrimages to the White

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT.

Net Decrease of $739,425,99 During May-Stock of Gold Down to $91,439,271. WASHINGTON, June 2.- The public debt statement shows a net decrease of $730,-425.99 during the month of May. Of this $657,175.50 was in the amount of the bonded indebtedness of the government and $82,-250.49 was in the increase of the cash in the treasury. The interest-bearing debt increased $300; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity decreased $37,480, and the debt bearing no interest $619,695.50. The aggregate interest and noninterestbearing debt May 31 was $961,750,888.63; on April 30 it was $962,407,764.13. The certificates and treasury notes offset by an equal amount of cash in treasury outstanding at the end of the month was $594,531,017, an increase of $1,485,604. The total cash in the treasury was $754,122,984.47, the gold reserve $95,048,640, and the net cash balances $26,516,514.30. In the month there was a decrease of $5,764,749.83 in gold coin and bars, the total at the close being $196,-518,609.76. Of silver there was an increase of $5,178,874.48. Of the surplus there was in national bank depositories $11,649,142,54, against $11,270,696.69 at the end of the previous month.

The total net gold in the treasury, at the close of business, to-day, was $91,489,271. This does not take into account the gold engaged to-day at New York for shipment to-morrow. No advices as to how much was engaged had been received at the treasury at the close of business. Because of the heavy shipments of gold from New York, Secretary Carlisle has ordered gold shipped from three other subtreasuries to New York, to keep up the supply there, and this gold is now on the way to New York.

Will Talk All Summer.

WASHINGTON, June 2 .- Unofficial advices from members of the American commission at Paris, in connection with the Behring sea arbitration, do not give any hope of an early termination of the present proceedings. Besides Sir Charles Russell, whose speech just closed, Great Britain will present four other attorneys, but how much time they will require, it is impossible, of course, to foretell. After they have finished Mr. E. J. Phelps and Mr. W. H. Blodgett, of counsel for the United States, are still to be heard. It is probable, however, that about the 1st of July some of the attaches to the American commission will be detached and return to this country. After the argument has been concluded the arbitrators have three months in which to render their decision. It was hoped that the final result would be reached by the 1st of October, at which time the modus vivendi at present in existence, regulating the legitimate catch of seals in the Behring sea, expires by the terms of the treaty of arbitration.

Honduran Revolution at an End. WASHINGTON, June 2 .- The Department of State has been informed that the leaders of the Honduras revolutionists have all left the country, with the exception of Gen. Terencio Sierra, who, with a band of about 150 men, is still in the department of Valparaiso, near the Nicaraguan border. Both Policarpo and Manuel Bonilla have been wounded, the former having had his arm amputated, and it is reported to have "gangrene." Some of the leaders are in Nicaragua and others in Guatemala. Unless some new and unexpected developments happen, the present revolution in Honduras is at an end. All the departments are now in the hands of the government, and mail and telegraphic communications are being reestablished as rapidly as possible.

CONGRESS OF SOCIAL PURITY.

Addresses by Archbishop Ireland, A. M. Powell, Mrs. Ballington Booth and Others.

CHICAGO, June 2,-Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, presided this morning at the opening session of the World's Fair Congress of Social Purity in the Hall of Columbus at the Art Palace. There was a large attendance, among those prominent being Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Mrs. Mary A. Livermore; Baron Bernard de Waeterville, of Switzerland; Mrs. Lydia A. Prescott, of California, and Mrs. Ballington Booth, of the Salvation Army.

The congress was welcomed by President Bonney, and response was made by Aaron M. Powell, president of the New York committee for the State Society for the Suppression of Vice. Mr. Powell spoke of the laws touching the "age of consent." In certain States the child who might not dispose of her property till she was eighteen years old might lawfully consent to her own ruin at the age of ten. Woman suffrage would change this deplorable condition of things, as witnessed by the fact that in States where woman had come closest to the ballot the age of consent had been raised to eighteen years.

Archbishop Ireland, in his address, said the moral pessimist would object that evil cannot be eradicated and will exist, no matter what we may do. Pessimism is the theory of cowards who would give over the world to evil. This was cowardly. No attempt to do good was ever made without some good result. Therefore the work of promoting social purity should go on. Another objection came from professed religious people who maintain that purity is an attribute of the sky, and that man is powerless. This is not tenable, because man must do his full share to help himself before the Lord will intervene. The Lord, while he put Moses on the mount to pray, put Asron in the plain below to fight. The Archolshop was enthusiastically applauded.

Mrs. Ballington Booth, who has just recovered from a severe illness, was unable to deliver her address, but the paper w read by a handsome Salvation lassie, Adjutant Vickery. In the paper Mrs. Booth recited the efforts of the Salvation Army to raise the lost from vice and despair.

To-night the congress heard papers on "The White Cross, its Origin and Mission," by Rev. B. F. DeCosta, president of the White Cross Society, of New York; "Objects and Work of the National Christian League for the Promotion of Social Purity." by Mrs. E. B. Grannis, president; "The White Cross among the Colored People of the South." by Prof. H. H. Wright, president of the White Cross Society, at Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn.; "Injustice of the Regulations System." by Mrs. Ellen Foster, and "Child Prostition," by Elbridge T. Gerry, New York.

The National Christian League for the Promotion of Social Purity met in an adjoining hall and was addressed by Bishop Fallows and other distinguished speakers.

GOVERNOR BROWN DEFIED.

Rhode Island Democrats Refuse to Adjourn the House at the Executive's Behest.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 2.-This afternoon Gov. Russell Brown adjourned the Legislature, the Senate, by a party vote, having first refused to concur with the House in the passage of a resolution requesting the Governor to lay the difficulties standing in the way of the two houses meeting in grand committee before the Superior Court for decision. The declination was upon the ground that the House acted fraudulently in unseathad ing legal members, and if they went into grand committee with them they became a party to the fraud and further, they have no assurance that the House would abide by the court's decision. The House laid the communication on the table, and the Senate did the same with a resolution of the House calling for the circulation through the State of 100,000 copies of the resolution of the House asking for the reference of the question at issue to the court, and the Senate's resolution on the same. Then came the reading of the Governor's proclamation announcing that, as the Senate and House were unable to agree upon the question of adjournment, he declared the General Assembly adjourned until the last Tuesday in January, 1894.

The House, hearing of the proclamation, unofficially took a recess for an hour just as it reached the Speaker's deak. Upon their reassembling it was at once seen that the Republican members had retired from the building, but the Democrats proceeded. They adopted last year's rules, with alterations, and adopted a resolution requesting the judges of the Supreme Court to decide whether the Senate could legally adjourn for longer than two days.

Farmer Crawford's Son Empties a Load of Duck Shot Into Neighbor Tomlinson.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SAYBROOK, Ill., June 2.- About midnight last night a probably fatal shooting occurred in the country, two and a half miles southwest of this city. William C. Tomlinson, an English tenant, went to the farm house of W. A. Crawford to ask the latter to send a son for a doctor to attend his wife, who was ill. Tomlinson drove in his cart into Crawford's vard and endeavored to arouse the family. Crawford, on awaking, was terrified and imagining the place had been attacked by White Caps or burglars, he and his sixteen-year-old son armed themselves, the latter taking a shotgun and his father a revolver. Crawford set out to get assistance, leaving his son to guard the man in the cart with the instruction to shoot if he approached. He had gone but a few steps when he heard the report of the gun. When he returned with a neighbor they found Tomlinson lying in a pool of blood. Tomlinson had stepped out of the cart to bitch the horse. Being deaf he did not hear the lad's challenge and the latter shot him with a

CHICAGO, June 2.—Harry Hill, of Atlanta, who is alleged to have forged the name of Mrs. Porter, wife of the president of the Merchants' Bank of Atlanta, to a number of notes, and who disappeared some time ago, and who disappeared some time ago, and who was arrested in Chicago yesterday, was arraigned this morning. The prisoner is said to belong to a leading family of Atlanta and to have the highest social connection. Mrs. Porter, it is alleged, has for years been a great friend of Hill's. This morning Hill waived examination and was held under $5,000 bonds to await the arrival of the Atlanta chief of police. As nearly as could be learned from the dispatches the alleged forgeries amounted to $12,500. Surrender of an Aged Embezzler, JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 2 .- Orren Sperry, who absconded twelve years ago with $80,000 belonging to Chautauqua county, returned yester-day and surrendered himself to District Attorney Woodward. Sperry spent all the money in gambling and speculation, and has been wandering all over the world. He told the district attorney that he was tired of this kind of life, and wanted to stand trial for his offense. He is seven-ty years of age, and it is believed that efforts will be made to have the case dropped or postEyesight Saved

Hired Girl Attempts to Obtain Damages from a Reputable Citizen.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARSHALL, Ill., June 2.-A sensational trial here to-day was a paternity suit against Alexander James, one of the most prominent citizens of Casey, this county, by Mary Jennings, a young girl amployed as domestic in his family. It proved to be a blackmailing attempt. Fully seventy-five witnesses testified to the defendant's good character, and it was proven that the young woman had been incited by her betrayer, a young man by the name of Short, to bring the suit.

Murdered Her Lover.

NEWARK, N. J., June 2 .- Lew Brown, a wellknown sporting man, was shot and killed by Emma Woods shortly before 3 o'clock this morning. The couple had lived together for the last four months, and the shooting is supposed to have been the result of a jealous quarrel. The murderess was arrested.

And Pain from Eczema. Scratched Until Blood Came. Scales Like a Fish, Cured by Cuticura.

I had a very bad case of Eczema on my neck. It was just terrible. At times it seemed as if it would drive me crazy with itching and pain. Through the day it would itch, causing me to scratch until the blood would come, and during the night it would scab over so that I would scratch scales off like those of a fish. Doctored with the family physician for one season. He gave me temporary relief but my trouble would come back at about the same time each year. Then I began using Cuticura Remedies, which have entirely cured me.

THROUGH HELPING MANUFACTURERS UNLOAD

WE HAVE OVERLOADED OURSELVES

All through the month of May we were besieged by manufacturers with big stocks of Fine Spring Suits which, owing to the tightness of the money market, they were forced to unload at any CASH price they could get. In nearly every instance, where the character of the clothing was up to standard, we yielded to the temptation and bought freely. Now we are in the same fix that we helped the manufacturers out of. The weather in May was not favorable for business, and we find ourselves now with an enormous stock on our hands-and it's not moving out as fast as it should. We must sell it-and in a hurry, too. We will put a price on our entire stock that will prove irresistible to the clothing-buying public. Beginning to-day, will give you UNLIMITED CHOICE OF ANY SUIT IN OUR HOUSE. We have thousands of suits made up to sell at $30, $28, $25, $22, $20 and $18. There are Cassimeres and Cheviots, Serges and Worsteds, Tricots and Clays, in Frocks and Single and Double-breasted Sack Suits-every one tailor-made-every one guaranteed to fit. All sizes-regulars, extra longs, stouts and extra sizesand we tell you take your pick of all of them for $15. We care not how fastidious you may be, no matter if you have been paying your tailor $35 to $60 for a suit, we can give you something just as good, that will fit and please you just as well, for $15. Our "Unloading Sale" will be the sensation of the season. You might as well reap some of its benefits.
